

Willowbank

Book Week

2010

23rd - 27th AUGUST

Dear parents and caregivers,

Our Bi-annual Book Week will be held next week!

We have lots of fun events planned including...

- Parents reading to children in many different languages
- Pre-school storytime in the library
- Bookmark and Book Review competitions
- Teachers reading their favourite books to different classes
- 'Guess the Character' quizzes
- A Book Fair in the library
- Book Week Dress Up Day and Parade
- PJ Party and Story Night

Pre-School Storytime

Bring your pre-schoolers along to the library each morning to listen to stories read by our fabulous librarians.

This is a great way to build enthusiasm about books and to introduce your pre-school children to Willowbank School.

Where? The Willowbank School Library

When? 8.30am every day during book week

Who? All preschoolers welcome to come along with their parents

Scholastic Book Fair @ Willowbank

We have the Scholastic Book Fair at our school from Thursday 19 August to Tuesday 24 August.

Where: e-Learning centre (part of the library)

When 8:30am-9:30am and 2:30pm-3:30pm each school day

Come along and buy books for your home library or to donate to our school library!

PJ Party and Story Night

Between 5pm - 7pm

Monday, 23rd August

Something for everyone!

Children, come along in your pyjamas to:

- listen to stories read by the teachers
- show your parents some of your learning from book week
- share your book fair wish list with your parents

Parents and family members, come along to

- see your children's work displayed
- browse the Scholastic Book Fair: books will be for sale at very reasonable prices, both to donate to the school library and to take home

Book Week Dress Up Day

Friday, 27th August

Come to school dressed as your favourite destination!

Parents, you are welcome to join us for our fabulous Book Week Costume Parade at 9:15am on Friday morning.

There will prizes for the most creative costume in each year group!
